Key Selling Points

- Tourism Ready...Since the 1990s

At its best, wine tourism allows travelers to make a true immersion into viniculture. Sandalford Wines have been at the forefront of Western Australia's tourism sector since the 1990s, receiving no less than 80 major state and national awards for excellence in tourism, restaurant and catering, wine and hospitality.

- Experienced Management + Staff

Sandalford welcomes inbound groups and domestic day tour visitors and FITs from diverse target markets, their executive team is highly experienced in national and international corporate tourism (including presenting five star gourmet events for conference and association clientele) and they have multi-lingual staff on site to guide guests' wine tourism experiences.

- An Historic, World-Class Vineyard Venue

Sandalford's estate had its genesis in 1840 when Queen Victoria granted John Septimus Roe, Western Australia's first Surveyor General, 4,000 acres of land on the banks of the Swan River in honor of his service. In 1992, the Prendiville family – who have diversified national tourism assets – purchased Sandalford Wines and developed the estates into the well respected tourism brand which attracts visitors from around the globe every day.

Today, Sandalford Wines is a legacy of wine and cuisine – reimagined.
